Under the authority referred above, it seems to be necessary to take the Govt of India's sanction before varying the 'nature of employment' of a Govt officer.

It is not clear whether the abolition of the office of Military Asst — which Col Jones held before he went on leave — amounts to varying the nature of his employment. The office has no information as to whether any reference was made to the Residency for the sanction of the Govt of India before the order of Sept 08 was issued. Only the draft of that order seems to have been sent to the office for issue.
